PRIVATE EXPERIENCE / ENGLISH

Arcoíris & Peñaliri

A day trip that connects the landscapes of Río Grande and Peñaliri with the vibrant colors of the Arcoíris Valley. The extended version includes several stops and lunch, rather than condensing everything into a half-day trip.

Your itinerary

Río Grande

We arrive in the vicinity of the village and its cultivated fields to understand the relationship between water and life in the quebrada (ravine). All walks respect private property and access restrictions.

Peñaliri

We continue toward the landscape of Peñaliri, following the agreed-upon route. Stops along the way allow for the observation of changes in the terrain and traces of human presence in the area.

Rainbow Valley (Valle Arcoíris) and petroglyphs

The interpretation focuses on the connection between mineral colors and landforms. The historical component includes a visit to petroglyphs, conducted at a designated site without touching or altering the engraved surfaces.

Lunch and afternoon light

Lunch is provided during the excursion. Depending on the schedule, a final scenic stop may take advantage of the afternoon light on the return journey, before heading back to San Pedro.
