PRIVATE EXPERIENCE / ENGLISH

Northern Villages

A day trip through the villages of the Alto Loa region to explore the connection between water, architecture, and the landscape. The specific itinerary is determined based on access and time constraints, with Chiu Chiu and Lasana serving as key reference points.

Your itinerary

Departure toward the Alto Loa region.

The journey provides context for the villages within a vast territory. The guide will explain the significance of water corridors and ancient routes.

Chiu Chiu

We explore public spaces and the surroundings of the area's historic architecture. Entry into the church or other buildings is subject to their opening hours and authorization.

Lasana and other stops

Visits to accessible heritage sites are combined with an exploration of the valley landscape. Destinations such as Caspana are included only if they are part of your booked itinerary and fit within the day's schedule.

Lunch and return

Meals and breaks are scheduled throughout the excursion. The final destination and travel times are outlined in your proposal; interactions with local residents are not guaranteed unless specifically arranged.

DURATION

Full day
