PRIVATE EXPERIENCE / ENGLISH

San Bartolo · a 4×4 Journey

An expedition through the Llano de la Paciencia and the San Bartolo area, exploring geological formations, dry riverbeds, and traces of ancient movement. This is a scenic vehicle-based tour with stops-distinct from the 22 km trekking route.

Your itinerary

Llano de la Paciencia

We depart from San Pedro to traverse the open landscape of the plain. Stops along the way allow for the observation of textures, geological folds, and the scale of the Cordillera de la Sal (Salt Mountain Range).

Piedra de la Coca

Guided interpretation introduces the routes and markers found throughout the territory. We observe these heritage elements without touching them or removing any material.

San Bartolo

The route continues through dry riverbeds and remnants of past human activity. Crossing points depend on current conditions; access to private properties and any potential interactions are coordinated in advance.

Refreshments and return

A break with a light snack allows you to enjoy the landscape before the return journey. The visit does not include automatic access to an active mining operation, nor does it involve a meeting with any specific individual.
