PRIVATE EXPERIENCE / ENGLISH

San Bartolo-Río Grande

A connecting stage between San Bartolo and Río Grande, traversing riverbeds, hills, and traces of ancient settlements. This route links rural accommodations, requiring all overnight stays to be arranged prior to departure.

Your itinerary

Preparation in San Bartolo

After breakfast, we will review our trekking gear. Visiting local properties or facilities requires prior authorization; please note that meetings with specific families cannot be guaranteed.

Riverbeds and traces of past activity

The hike follows river sections and paths showing signs of historical mining activity. Your guide will explain how these visible remains relate to the local trails and the history of the area, while ensuring a safe distance from any unstable structures.

Hills and historical remnants

The route includes a series of ascents and descents before approaching Río Grande. During breaks, you will have time to eat and observe the ruins and the landscape-please ensure that no heritage sites are disturbed.

Arrival in the village

The trek concludes in the adobe-filled, cultivated landscape of Río Grande. Dinner and an overnight stay are included if you have booked the overnight option; if this stage is booked separately, arrangements for a return vehicle will be determined accordingly.

DURATION

Approximately 6 hours of trekking

DISTANCE / ROUTE

Approx. 14 km on foot

EFFORT

Trekking involving ascents and stream crossings

MEALS

Breakfast, a packed meal for the trail, and dinner are included in the overnight program; please specify your menu preferences and accommodation requirements when booking.

TRANSPORT

Hotel pickup and drop-off in San Pedro (depending on location). Private transfers with stops coordinated by the guide.

PREPARATION

Sturdy footwear, warm clothing, and overnight gear (if applicable) are required. Access to private property and accommodation must be confirmed in advance.