PRIVATE EXPERIENCE / ENGLISH

Saturno · between Volcanoes

"Saturno" is a journey through the volcanic landscape of the high plateau (altiplano). The itinerary includes lagoons, ravines, and wetlands in areas identified through local expertise, strictly adhering to authorized access routes.

Your itinerary

Approaching the Volcanoes

From San Pedro, we ascend toward the area around Toco and Cerro Negro. Stops along the way provide an opportunity to take in the mountain massifs and the scale of the landscape before continuing along the designated paths for the excursion.

Lagoons and Quepiaco

The itinerary covers the Dalí, Quepiaco, and Laguna Amarilla areas. The specific locations visited are subject to current permits and road conditions; there is time to observe the mineral contrasts and take photographs from designated vantage points.

Alitar Area

When the route includes this area, we observe the geothermal environment of Alitar from permitted zones. The guide explains its connection to the volcanic landscape; please note that entering the hot springs or bathing is not permitted.

Lunch and Return

Lunch is enjoyed during a break in the excursion. We return via the route determined by the local driver and guide. An extension to Tara is a separate option and must be explicitly agreed upon in advance.
