PRIVATE EXPERIENCE / ENGLISH

Tulán · Desert Traces

A day of hiking through the Tulán landscape, exploring the connection between the ravine, water sources, and ancient human settlements. This heritage visit is restricted to authorized areas; touching or handling archaeological remains is not permitted.

Your itinerary

Transfer to the starting point.

A vehicle transfer brings us to the designated trekking area. The guide will explain access rules and the territorial context of the route.

Hiking through the ravine.

We hike while observing changes in the terrain and vegetation. The route and the frequency of breaks are adjusted based on the landscape and the group's pace.

Landscape and heritage.

Explanations will highlight the relationship between the presence of water and historical human occupation of the area. Sensitive sites are to be viewed only from permitted zones; collecting objects or entering restricted areas is prohibited.

Meal and return.

A snack/meal is consumed during the hike. Upon finishing, we return to the vehicle and head back to San Pedro, ensuring enough time to exit the area.

DURATION

Approximately 5 hours of hiking.

DISTANCE / ROUTE

Reference: 9 km; +500 m elevation gain.

EFFORT

Sustained trekking.

MEALS

Includes a trail snack, a sandwich, and drinks, as per the itinerary.

TRANSPORT

Hotel pickup and drop-off in San Pedro (depending on location). Private transfers with stops coordinated by the guide.

PREPARATION

Confirm heritage site access and route details. Bring water, trekking footwear, and sun protection.
